

MCSPCA Mad Libs

One day (child's name) and (sibling or friend's name) received a special invitation in the mail from the Monmouth County SPCA. "Please come to visit and be our special guest for the day," it read. (child's name) could not believe it! What luck!

"I can't wait to visit and see the (animal type) and the (animal type)! Maybe we will get to see a (animal type) or a (shelter activity)!"

The big day finally arrived and (child's name) climbed into the car wearing (special outfit) and a (accessory) for the visit. On the way to the shelter, they sang (name of a song about animals). The first thing they saw at the MCSPCA was a (color) (size) (type of dog) being walked outside. Although they were not permitted to (action) him, the kids decided to name him (name for a dog).

Once inside the shelter, they were greeted by Dr. Mammen. "I'm so glad you're here!" she exclaimed. Today we are doing (veterinarian's activity) on a (type of wild animal). It will be a very special thing to watch! "

They entered the Vogel Veterinary clinic where there were a lot of (noun)s busily working. It was a very (adjective) environment. Rounding the corner into the surgical suite, they saw Dr. Hirschberger in scrubs and a surgical cap. The cap had (graphic images) printed on it! On the surgical table and under anesthesia was a large (wild animal).

"This (wild animal) had a (type of injury) that had to be operated on," Dr. Hirshberger said, "and she also needed (type of veterinary surgery). She has a surprise for us!" The kids watched the surgery with (emotion), and it lasted (number) hours! "Whew!" Dr. Hirshberger finally said, wiping his (body part). That was a (adjective) surgery! But now we are done. And look at the surprise!" And there, on the surgery table next to that lucky MCSPCA animals, was (plural noun)!
